High Quality Through Separate and Independent Credit Analysis

Since 1981, we continue to strengthen our focus on credit quality by leveraging the Goldman Sachs & Co. Credit Department. This group comprises more than 300 credit professionals, focuses exclusively on credit analysis, is a separate operating entity, and is in no way subordinate to GSAM.¹

The Goldman Sachs Credit Department:

- Constructs and maintains the GSAM Money Market Credit Approved List
- Communicates daily with GSAM portfolio managers to review potential credit risks, discuss changing credit conditions and gauge liquidity of issuers
- Reviews and approves all additions, deletions and/or changes to the Approved List

S&P’s AAAm-G rating: A fund rated “AAAm” has extremely strong capacity to maintain principal stability and to limit exposure to principal losses due to credit, market and/or liquidity risks. “AAAm” is the highest principal stability fund rating assigned by Standard & Poor’s. Moody’s Aaa-mf rating: Money market funds and bond funds rated Aaa-mf are judged to be of an investment quality similar to Aaa-rated fixed income obligations, that is, they are judged to be of the best quality. Fitch AAA/V1+ rating: Money market funds have the highest credit quality and safety of principal. Fund management’s experience, coupled with fund policies and procedures, indicates safety is extremely strong. The V1+ rating is Fitch’s highest volatility rating and is reserved exclusively for stable NAV funds. Ratings are subject to change and do not imply the elimination of risk.
