High Quality Through Separate and Independent Credit Analysis

Since 1981, we continue to strengthen our focus on credit quality by leveraging the Goldman Sachs & Co. Credit Department. This group comprises more than 300 credit professionals, focuses exclusively on credit analysis, is a separate operating entity, and is in no way subordinate to GSAM.¹

The Goldman Sachs Credit Department:

- Constructs and maintains the GSAM Money Market Credit Approved List
- Communicates daily with GSAM portfolio managers to review potential credit risks, discuss changing credit conditions and gauge liquidity of issuers
- Reviews and approves all additions, deletions and/or changes to the Approved List

Government Funds: You could lose money by investing in the Fund. Although the Fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the Fund is not a deposit of the bank and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The Fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the Fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the Fund at any time.

Retail Funds: *You could lose money by investing in the Fund. Although the Fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. The Fund may impose a fee upon sale of your shares or may temporarily suspend your ability to sell shares if the Fund's liquidity falls below required minimums because of market conditions or other factors.
